Maui Raffle Tickets

Anthony

There are 60 tickets left to sell at $20.00 per ticket. Several members purchased the raffle tickets.

Anthony also announced that the CHP is providing a senior driving educational course. He suggested doing this as a club for a one-day event. He will check on a date and send an email to members.

Annual Picnic

Becky announced that the picnic will be held on September 21 at Western Gateway Park in Penn Valley. Bruce and Carol are hosting the picnic. Al and Chris will co-host along with additional help from the Purdy’s and Jacobson’s.

Christmas Party

Steve announced that he has secured Saturday, December 14, as the date for our holiday party. It will be held at Lake Wildwood Country Club in the Cedar Room. More information will be provided in the coming months.

Charity Raffle Drawing

Kris announced that the last charity donation went to the American Legion which allowed 4 candidates to attend the State Convention and learn about government.

Kris also announced that a fashion show showing fashion from 1860 to 1970 along with a luncheon will be held at the Veteran’s Hall on April 27 at $25.00 per person. Contact Kris for further information.

Ronald McDonald House was selected for this month's charity raffle. Bruce suggested that in lieu of sending a check for $400, the club will provide laundry supplies and take the laundry soap to the McDonald House. Then members will have lunch at a designated restaurant. Becky will confirm with Bruce and get back to the members.

Reminders

Save your pull-tabs and give to Carol. Give hotel items to Mary Jayne and send your photos to Jay. Also, give any discarded eyeglasses to Carol for the Lions Club.

Remember to check the WSCC web calendar – www.wscs.ws
